NOTE FOR: Mr. Knoche

1. I suggest you send a note along the following lines to Bill Wells and George Cary.

Although the Bayh trip appears to be back on track, the correspondence points up two lessons for future travel of members of our oversight committees.

a. We should make arrangements to receive all CODEL messages concerning the travel of members of our oversight committees who are travelling on intelligence oversight business. I understand that George Cary has already made such arrangements with his counterpart in the State Department.

2. I believe that these two arrangements plus a revision of [Redacted] on the travel and briefing of visiting members of Congress should make it possible to arrange and monitor the future travel of the members of our oversight committees.
